

Household of Faith Agreement

We know, if we, as adults, are not growing in our relationship with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, in the Roman Catholic Church our children and grandchildren will not either.

This growth can be measured in our lives and reflects us as truly a Christian believer/ parishioner by:

- ✚ Weekly attendance at Mass to receive the Eucharist and God's Word
- ✚ Growth in our individual and community prayer
- ✚ Sharing Time, Talent and Treasure in the parish and community

As a parent, at your child's baptism, you were asked to be the first teachers for your child bringing them up in the ways of faith. You said "I will." Your baptismal commitment to your child includes involvement and support of their Catholic Faith Formation at home and in the parish. Please check the box after you have read it, showing your commitment to it.

- Attend Mass every weekend with my child/children.
- Attend parent nights; the 1st class of each month.
- Bring my child/children to Faith Formation classes, events and retreats.
- See to the completion of my child's/children's Faith Formation assignments.
- Spend time each week with my child/children discussing the lesson of the week.
- Help my child/children both learn and understand the prayers of our faith.
- Support charitable efforts in the parish and the community.
- Lead by example through volunteering within the parish and community.
- Do my best to purchase SCRIP to support the parish.
- Be open to lifelong learning about our Catholic faith.

As a baptized Catholic, no matter what our age, we are called to continue to learn about the love of God, our Father, through the gift of both Jesus and the Holy Spirit. As a child of God, we must seek greater knowledge about not only God but our Catholic faith including scripture and tradition as well. Please check the box after you have read it, showing your commitment to it.

- I will attend Mass every weekend.
- I will attend my Faith Formation classes, events and retreats.
- I will complete my assignments for class.
- I will pray daily.

Signature of child(ren)

- The parish will continue to provide Catholic resources to assist parents in their own growth in the Catholic faith to grow into a household of faith.
